Coaching

This module explores coaching as a method to increase the collective capacity of faculty and staff to better meet the needs of all learners. Several models of coaching are used in Ohio schools. The various coaching models are highlighted, with an emphasis on the skills that cut across the identified coaching approaches. The following topics are discussed in module text, linked resources, and embedded videos:

- Research evidence relating to coaching
- Coaching as a part of a larger professional development framework
- Coaching models currently in use
- Coaching macro and micro practices
- Coaching skills across all models
- Educators' perspectives on coaching

The content of this module is designed for leaders, regardless of position, who are facilitating school improvement efforts in school buildings, school districts and on a regional level.

The Coaching module aligns with Ohio's Leadership Framework in the following areas:

- Area 1 Data and Decision-Making Process
- Area 2 Focused Goal Setting Process
- Area 3 Instruction and Learning Process
- Area 5 Resource Management Process
